

proximity to the campus to meet the projected need for student housing;
and

2. The elimination of substandard student housing and the structural