

(1) The Board of Governors is committed to creating an organizational culture where risk management structures are established to prevent and detect fraud within each state university.

(2) Fraud is defined as an intentional misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact detected, reported,

universi