

(1) Each university board of trustees shall adopt a regulation which reasonably accommodates the religious observance, practice, and belief of individual students in regard to admissions, class attendance, and the scheduling of examinations and work assignments.

(2) Each regulation shall include a grievance procedure by which a student who believes that he or she has been unreasonably denied an educational benefit due to his or her religious belief or practices may seek redress.

(3) Such regulation shall be made known to faculty and students annually and included in the institution's handbook, manual, or other similar document regularly provided to faculty and students.

Authority: Section 7(d), Art. IX, Fla. Const., History -- New 3-29-89, Amended and Renumbered 1-29-09.
